FESTIVAL INFO

FESTIVAL STORE & HOSPITALITY

Located in the Sheridan Opera House, the Festival Store & Hospitality is the place to pick up your 3-Day Passes or 6-Packs and purchase official Telluride Horror Show merchandise.

THEATERS, LINES, AND INDIVIDUAL TICKETS

Films screen at the Nugget Theatre, Palm Theatre, and Sheridan Opera House. There are two lines at each venue: 1) Pass holders & 6-Pack ticket holders. 2) The line to buy an individual ticket. Individual tickets are $15 per person, unless otherwise noted. Individual tickets are only sold at the door and after all pass holders & 6-Pack ticket holders have been admitted.

STARTING TIMES

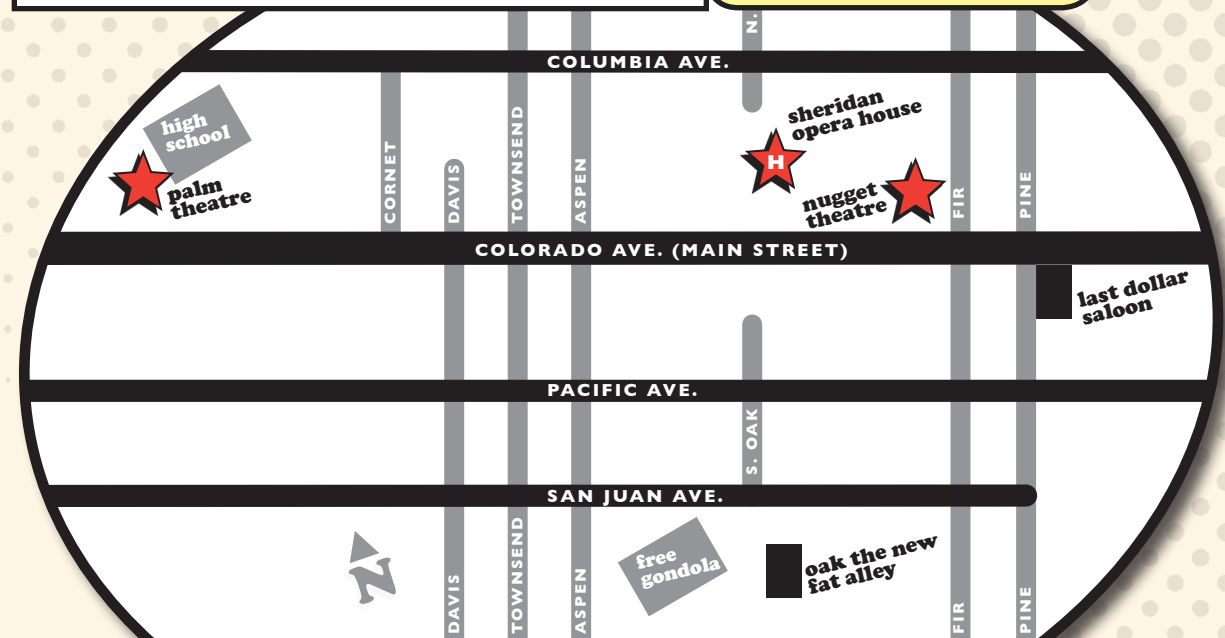

Doors open 15 minutes before show time. We ask that all 3-Day pass holders & 6-Pack ticket holders arrive no later than 10 minutes before show times. If there are empty seats at the start of a program, we will assume that they are available to release to the general public. We cannot let people into a theater once the film has started. This applies to ALL 3-Day pass holders, 6-Pack ticket holders and individual ticket buyers. Please don't be late!

THE Q SYSTEM

If lines start to form at the theaters, our staff may issue Q tickets. Qs are handed out so we can determine how many people are waiting in line for a film. This tells us if we're going to reach capacity for a show and if we need to tell those at the end of the line to go to another theater. If there is a particular program that you really want to see, we highly recommend getting in line at the venue in advance to avoid being turned away to another venue due to a sold-out show.

TBAS (TO BE ANNOUNCED)

We will post any TBAs at the Nugget Theatre, Palm Theatre, Sheridan Opera House, and online.

2018 DATES

The 9th Annual Telluride Horror Show will be held October 12-14, 2018. Be sure to visit www.telluridehorrorshow.com and sign up for our email list to receive news and updates!

Jon Davison VAULT KEEPER

With the addition of the Palm Theatre, glorious 35MM film returns to the Telluride Horror Show, along with our "vault keeper" Jon Davison! In 1972, American film producer Jon Davison hooked up with Roger Corman's prolific B-movie outfit New World Pictures, where he initially was the director of advertising and publicity. Davison made his debut as associate producer of "Big Bad Mama," and went on to produce the exploitation feature parody "Hollywood Boulevard," Ron Howard's directorial debut "Grand Theft Auto," and Joe Dante's tongue-in-cheek killer fish flick "Piranha" for New World Pictures. Davison left New World Pictures in 1980 to produce the classic comedies "Airplane!" and "Top Secret!" for Jim Abrahams and the Zucker brothers. He subsequently produced the sci-fi cult classics "RoboCop" and "Starship Troopers" for director Paul Verhoeven.

A film buff with a vast collection of vintage horror films in his vault, Mr. Davison will present what is believed to be the only remaining 35MM IB Technicolor print of Mario Bava's gorgeous and haunting gothic horror feature THE WHIP AND THE BODY, as well as a handpicked collection of vintage horror movie trailers for a special Telluride Horror Show edition of "Trailers From Hell", a matinee show celebrating outrageous horror trailers from years past. All in glorious 35MM!

Meredith Borders
GUEST HOST

Meredith Borders is the editorial director of the Alamo Drafthouse and Birth.Movies.Death, as well as the social media director at Fantastic Fest. She lives in Houston with her husband Matt where they own and operate City Acre Brewing. 78/52
USA | 2017 | 91 min | Director: Alexandre O. Philippe
FRIDAY, 4:30PM, NUGGET

The screeching strings, the plunging knife, the slow zoom out from a lifeless eyeball: In 1960, Alfred Hitchcock's Psycho changed film history forever with its taboo-shattering shower scene. With 78 camera set-ups and 52 edits over the course of 3 minutes, Psycho redefined screen violence, set the stage for decades of slasher films to come, and introduced a new element of danger to the movie-going experience. Aided by a roster of filmmakers, critics, and fans - including Guillermo del Toro, Bret Easton Ellis, Jamie Lee Curtis, Eli Roth, and Peter Bogdanovich - director Alexandre O. Philippe pulls back the curtain on the making and influence of this cinematic game changer, breaking it down frame by frame and unpacking Hitchcock's dense web of allusions and double meanings. The result is an enthralling piece of cinematic detective work that's nirvana for film and horror buffs.

Through the years, despite multiple edited versions, CONFESSIONS developed a following in underground markets with illegal bootlegs. In 2016, the film rights reverted to its creator, allowing the film to finally be shown as it was originally intended.
